Hi Sandra

We might have to rethink the dates, as I had totally forgotten that we wanted to go to Dark Mofo and afterwards I am flying out to Germany, so July will be out. August will be the Bundy Art Prize again. We could do early August or September?

Can you check your diary to see what would suit you?

Hi Marlies (again)

I meant to ask is it possible to change the weekend of the workshop? I'm in a group exhibition that opens on the Friday with a floor talk on the Sunday, and I would like to be there.

I didn't have it written in my diary (oops).

Does the 4/5 July suit you? I think its still school holidays....

Hi Marlies

No we don't need a printing press for this workshop, which will work well for me as we'll be doing this trip with our caravan. Less stuff to bring is good.

It'll be a fun workshop, I've run it a couple of times, and everyone really enjoys it. They can either make a book or two, or just print as 2D if they prefer.

Attached is the workshop outline and materials list and costing (same as usual). I used the word 'Leporello' in the workshop title 😊😊😊

Also attached are some images for promotion etc. I'll make up some samples using fancier accordion formats as well. I've got samples using monoprints from my press and lino cuts, but not using this particular technique.

Hi Sandra

Do we need a printing press for this workshop?

Could you send me a new outline and material list for this two day workshop, please?

Cheers

Hi Marlies

Sure thing....i haven't heard a concertina book called a leporello book before but I like it!

What if we did gelatine printing the first day, exploring some advanced printing techniques (image transfer, composition, registration, transparent layers, white over dark, self-made stencils) and start working into the prints with drawing etc in a concertina format. Then the second day we go further to create the carousel advanced book format using prints and content created the previous day? So they end up with 2 books at the end of the weekend as well as prints and decorative papers suitable for collage or more books.

Many people enjoy a project focussed workshop like this.

What do you think?

Hi Sandy

I marked it in the diary and will get in touch with Kepnock High School after the hols.

All sounds good.

Have a wonderful Christmas and a very happy, healthy and creative New Year!!!

Hi Marlies

Sorry got distracted with Xmas parties.... 🎄🎄🎄

How about 27/28 June, Craig can get some time off then.

For fees, attached is a quote, about the same as this year.

Cheers

Hi Marlies

We've just bought an EcoTourer Caravan so we'll be keen travellers next year, a workshop or two would be a good excuse to travel up your way!

When you say 'series of workshops', what are you thinking of? I have a new one called 'Mixed Media Nature Sketchbook' involving a concertina format with gelii printing and drawing/sketching/mark making.

You could also consider artist book making, where we do a more advanced type of structure like a carousel. You did mention papermaking but that will require a large outdoor undercover space as it involves a lot of water, the school room wouldn't suit it, so not sure if you have another suitable location for that.

Let me know what you think. 😊😊😊

Hi Sandy

I hope you are coming back to Bundy next year to teach a series of workshops? Could you give me some dates which would suit you?

Loving your photos on Instagram. I have been very quiet but can't wait to get back into my studio.

Look forward to hearing from you soon.
